WOMAN HITS JACKPOT WORTH $1.5 MILLION DOLLARS AT SPA RESORT CASINO IN PALM SPRINGS

PALM SPRINGS, CA (April 2, 2007) – A Los Angeles woman who came to Spa Resort Casino for a travel blanket giveaway left with much more than just a blanket—after hitting a jackpot worth $1,566,178.25.

Frieda won on a nickel Megabucks machine—a progressive slot,

But she almost missed her chance to be a millionaire.

Frieda said she had been playing that particular Megabucks machine earlier in the night, but had walked away to have dinner. Frieda said she came back to the slot for a few more spins before heading home, and that’s when luck stepped in: “The jackpot hit just 20 minutes before we were supposed to leave to go home,” Frieda said. “It’s mind-boggling; one day I’m poor and the next day I’m a millionaire!”

Frieda, said the money will come in handy to pay off some bills and will also pay for some fun—she said she and her friends have planned another trip to Spa Resort Casino next month.
